Ferrari Logistic (Asia) Ltd.

GENERAL CONDITIONS OF FERRARI AGENTS FOR INTERNATIONAL CARRIAGE

These conditions are intended to define the methods of execution, on the part of Ferrari. The customer agrees to sign the relevant Shipping Order and release the goods to Ferrari. This Shipping Order must be completed by the Customer (Donneur d'Ordre) and delivered together with the goods. The services of storage or warehousing connected to the shipping contract, which are accessories to the principle service, are governed by these arrangements. No other arrangements can prevail over these terms, unless explicitly accepted by the carrier.

1. Object of the Warrant

All shipments are carried out in accordance to the Shipping Order issued by the principal/sender to the Ferrari agent, its associates or affiliates, the which entrusts to a carrier and/or courier of his choice, subject to the conditions specified in the respective laws and regulations. The Agent is only responsible for the choices as related to route, means and method of transport. Upon request, for a fee to be agreed, special air transport can be arranged by Ferrari armoured vehicle with goods that requires additional security.

2. Shipping Order

Ferrari takes on the assignment only on the specific order of the "donneur d'ordre" (the one that requested the service), in which must be specified: the nature of the merchandise, the number, the quantity, the quality, the contents of the packages, the value, and any other information needed for carrying out the assignment and for the avoidance of risk. This shipping order cannot be substituted by an invoice, credit note, etc. Any incorrect interpretation of these documents is the sole responsibility of the sender. However, in the absence of adequate or viable instructions, Ferrari can, where necessary, operate according to its own judgment, in the interests of the principal. The shipping order must be completed by the customer/sender and delivered together with the goods. The customer/sender will be bound by the signing of the shipping order by any of its employees, officers, agents and/or representatives.

3. Responsibilities and Obligations of the Customer (Donneur d'Ordre)
